

FACT Services

FACT carries out E&P technical service projects, as well as offering consulting services in many technology areas. Among the areas of expertise of FACT and its technology partners are: Reservoir characterization, prospect evaluation, reserves assessment, geochemical analysis, enhanced oil recovery, overpressure studies, enhanced oil recovery (water flooding, steam injection, CO2 injection), reservoir surveillance and monitoring, 4D seismic, seismic acquisition / modeling, electromagnetic data acquisition / interpretation, permeability prediction, hydraulic fracturing, seismic attribute analysis, and machine learning applications in oil and gas, among others.